

How to Apply

Stop by any NYPL location to pick up a Heiskell application, or download one online: nypl.org/talkingbooks

Individuals who have one or more of the following are eligible for membership:

- Visual impairment or blindness that makes it difficult to read text (even large print) for long periods of time
- Physical disability that makes it difficult to hold a book or turn pages
- Organic reading disability

The New York Public Library Andrew Heiskell Braille & Talking Book Library

40 West 20th Street
New York, NY 10011

212-206-5400 | 855-697-6975 (toll free)
talkingbooks@nypl.org
nypl.org/talkingbooks

MON, WED, FRI, SAT 10 AM–5 PM
TUES, THURS 12–7 PM
SUN Closed

Serving residents of New York City and Long Island, The New York Public Library's Andrew Heiskell Braille and Talking Book Library is part of the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped.

NYPL features a unique combination of 88 neighborhood branches throughout the Bronx, Manhattan, and Staten Island, and four scholarly research centers.

Learn more about accommodations for people with disabilities at any Library location: nypl.org/accessibility

Fully accessible to wheelchairs

Andrew Heiskell Braille & Talking Book Library

Discover a World of Accessible Resources

New York Public Library

nypl.org

Free Books, Workshops & More

Heiskell Library is the only NYC library created to serve people with print disabilities. It offers indoor and outdoor reading areas, a children's room, assistive technology devices, and more.

Barrier-Free Events

- Story times and youth programs
- Accessible exhibitions, cultural programs, art classes, and concerts
- Resource fairs and support groups
- Creative writing workshops, book clubs, and braille study groups

Assistive Technology Coaching

- One-on-one coaching at all levels in a variety of languages
- Help with email, audiobook downloads, accessible computer games, using the internet, and more
- Group workshops, including accessible typing, smartphone use, online shopping, apps for getting around, coding, and robotics

Braille & Talking Books

Andrew Heiskell's growing range of free materials includes more than 80,000 narrated talking books for all ages, from bestsellers to classic literature, poetry, and nonfiction, as well as 14,000 braille and digital braille books and magazines.

We also offer:

- Free, easy-to-use talking book players with speed and tone controls
- BARD online: Instant downloads to keep and play on your book player
- BARD app: Download e-audiobooks directly to your mobile device
- Early Tactile and Braille Literacy Kits

Easy Borrowing

Check out materials in person, have books mailed to you, or get instant downloads with BARD. Never worry about late fees or postage—it's all free!

- Sign up for automatic delivery of your favorite genres and authors.
- Request titles by email, phone, voicemail, mail-order form, or via our online catalog.

Learn more: nypl.org/talkingbooks

More Resources

- Audio magazine subscriptions: Access more than 60 magazines, including National Geographic, the New Yorker, and Seventeen.
- Newsline: Listen to local and national newspapers, magazines, and TV listings 24 hours a day by phone, email, or download.
- Bookshare: Get more than 600,000 books, from new bestsellers to older titles, plus career-related and academic works. Books are read aloud by your computer or mobile device, with highlighted text onscreen, and adjustable text size and contrast.

